Description

Ventimiglia, Liguria - Imperia:

Exquisite villa finished to perfection at Latte, just on the frontier with the South of France.

The house is on three levels and has super panoramic views over the Italian Riviera to the East, over Hanbury Gardens below and to the west over the French Caps towards Montecarlo, from which it is 15 minutes distance, the frontier with the south of France is 1 km distance.

The villa faces south and has views which are unrivalled of the sea and the coast. At road level there is a large double garage, its private drive through its landscaped gardens leads to a second paved parking level for 5 cars, from which a lift in crystal takes you to the villa front.

Here there is an enormous panoramic terrace and a path which leads to the gazebo and the infinity pool. The house itself creates large and panoramic spaces, with every attention to detail.

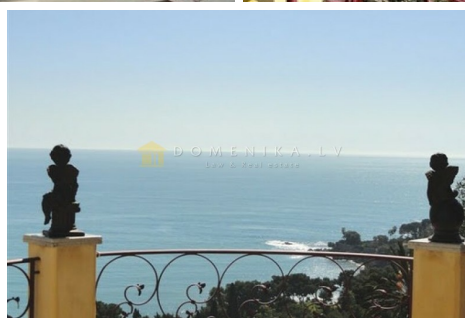

The extensive salone and kitchen, with a bathroom are on the ground floor level. A marble stair case leads to the upper floors with two bedrooms and bathrooms all leading to enormous panoramic sun terraces. At garden level there are a further two bedrooms and bathroom. Ultra modern and finished with flair.

The villa has been created over the last four years and is at perfection with a wonderful and ornate park land of 2,000 sqm around it.
