Description

Castiglion Fiorentino, Tuscany - Arezzo:

Apartment on the second floor of an historical building in the heart of Castiglion Fiorentino.

The building, once owned by one of the most powerful families in the city, was restored five years ago and divided into luxurious apartments with finishes of the highest quality.

This apartment measures 80 square meters and is composed as follows: entrance hall with loft, living room with kitchen, two bedrooms and a bathroom.

The floors are brick and the ceilings have exposed beams.

The windows face a quiet street overlooking the Val di Chio.

The mezzanine is used as a study.

The cellar is equipped with a window in the basement. All the levels of the building are connected by wide staircase and an elevator.

The apartment is in excellent condition and can be lived in immediately. It is possible to reach the entrance door by car.

In the nearby Piazza there is a car park for residents.
