Apraksts

The apartment is located in a historical art nouveau building, designed by the famous architects Friedrich Scheffel and Heinrich Scheel. It has been renovated into a modern, functional building retaining historical elements. Located on Kr. Valdemara street 23, between Elizabetes and Dzirnavu streets, next to the “quiet centre” of Riga, in the midst of foreign embassies, presitige residential and office buildings, museums, restaurants and parks. The front building house is Hotel Valdemars, which provides additional services if required to apartment residents incl. cleaning services, meals and free access to their sauna and gym. Their 24 hr guard and video cameras provide additional security. This renovated apartment is equipped with a fitted kitchen and bathroom, a living room and bedroom and a balcony. The ceilings have historic decorative elements. Parquet floors. Domophone and fire alarm systems. A storage unit is available in the cellar. First - upper ground floor. Located in the courtyard building. The peaceful courtyard itself has an outside terrace in the summer.
